Study about the working of telecommunication network by world Bank

936. SHRI S. MADHAVAN: Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether any study has been made by the World Bank about the working of India's telecommunication network;

(b) if no, what are the recommendations made by the World Bank to rectify the deficiencies in our telecom system; and

(c) whether the World Bank is sending any mission to India to make a review of our telecommunication system with a view to help the development programmes submitted by the Department of Telecommunications?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS AND THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI JAI PARKASH): (a) to (c) The study by the World Bank has been taken up in hand in February 1991 and is likely to continue for about 6 months. The recommendations of the study team will be available only after completion of the study.
